dōTERRA® Copaiba

Copaifera

- Supports healthy cardiovascular, nervous, and digestive systems and a healthy inflammatory response when taken internally.*
- Provides powerful antioxidant properties when used internally.*
- Promotes clear, smooth skin and reduces the appearance of blemishes.

SOURCING

Traditional healers in northern Brazil have used copaiba trees for their health benefits for centuries.

USAGE

- Combine with a carrier oil or a facial moisturizer to help cleanse the skin and reduce the appearance of blemishes.
- Massage two to three drops onto desired areas to soothe sore, tired muscles after strenuous activity.
- Place one to two drops under the tongue to encourage a general sense of well-being during periods of stress or nervousness.*

PURE

While Copaiba doesn't contain psychoactive cannabinoids, the main component (β -Caryophyllene) may be neuroprotective and have cardiovascular benefits when consumed.* It's also a powerful antioxidant that promotes a healthy inflammatory response.*
